

2020 UnitedHealth Passport® Travel Benefit Service Areas for Individual Medicare Advantage Plans

Overview

UnitedHealth Passport is a travel benefit for members enrolled in eligible UnitedHealthcare Individual Medicare Advantage plans. Members must call us to activate the benefit to receive up to nine months of non-emergency health care starting on their first travel day away from home.

Passport is offered with many, but not all, AARP® Medicare Advantage and UnitedHealthcare Medicare Advantage plans. The Passport service area is made up of specific counties in 40 states across the United States.

If you're a network care provider who participates in UnitedHealthcare Medicare Advantage plans that include Passport, you can provide care to a member with this travel benefit. If the following logo is included on the front of the member's ID card, the travel benefit is available to them.

Please use this Service Area List of the states and counties where Passport is available as a reference. Not all UnitedHealthcare plans in these areas offer Passport. To confirm your participation in Passport, check your Participation Agreement or call your Physician Advocate or Network Management Representative.

For more information about Passport, we encourage you to review the 2020 UnitedHealth Passport FAQs available at UHCprovider.com > Health Plans by State > Choose Your State > Medicare > Select Plan Name > Tools & Resources.
